

CURRICULUM

HANDBOOK FOR EDUCATION AND SELF-EDUCATION IN ENGLISH LANGUAGE FOR THE NEEDS OF THE TOURISM

MODULE	GRAMMAR	VOCABULARY	COMMUNICATION AND COMMON NOTIONS
0. Good afternoon! How do you do!	Personal pronoun – nominative. The verb to be – present tense. Noun – gender, number, nominativ (singular and plural) Adjective. – gender, number nominativ (singular and plural) Cardinal numerals	Greetings Introducing Basic questions Basic phrases	Establishing a contact Giving personal information Obtaining personal information
1. Welcome...and visit us again!	Verbs have/do not have Ordinal numerals Possessive pronouns. Adverbs of place Nouns and adjectives in the Accusative (singular and plural)	Arrival Welcoming Seeing off Departure Kinds of transport	Asking for and obtaining personal information Specifying the details Possession; Dates
2. What would you like, please?	Verb conjugation Present tense -usage Adverbs for time Demonstrative pronouns Personal pronouns in the Accusative Numerals in the Accusative	Information by the phone “Information” bureau: Brochures; Services; Entertainment; Trips	Identification of an object Existence Fixing events in time Description
3. What room you are looking for?	Future tense -verbs – positive and negative form Nouns, adjectives, personal pronouns and numerals in the Locative Adverbs of time Prepositions of place	Reservation: by the phone; in a tourist agency Accommodation: in a hotel – organized/not organized groups of tourists; Private accommodation; On a camping site.	Looking for and submitting information about the location of an object Planning of events and activities Agreement/disagreement
4. Why don't we have hot water?	Modal verbs Interrogative, negative, indefinite and compendious pronouns. Asking for permission Prepositions and verbs of motion	Personnel in the hotel: reception clerks Doorkeeper/chambermaid/cashier Complaints – regarding the cleanliness, the accommodation, technical defects Payments	Giving an opinion, Motivating disagreement, apology Asking for permission Description of a route Approximate quantity

5. Bon appetite!	Past Tense Adverbs used with past tenses Nouns, adjectives, personal pronouns and numerals in the Genitive Cardinal/countable form of the noun Word-formation – prepositions for origin	Reservation by the phone Meeting guests at the restaurant Ordering food and drinks Serving/complaints/ payment Claims Catering for organized groups of tourists: After arrival/changes/ Additional trips	Formulating requirements and claims Expressing a necessity Giving an advice Starting and closing a phone conversation Reaction at a mistake
6. Let us sport!	Imperative mood Addressing Vocative Formal/informal style	Information at the reception desk Around the pool Hiring a bike/a boat/ski Complaints	Making a request Accepting and rejecting an invitation Expressing a forbiddance
7. Party time!	Conditional mood Nouns, adjectives, personal pronouns and numerals in the Dative States	Information At the reception Billiards / Children’s place Excursions/picnics/trips	Formulating a desire, Intention and missed opportunity. Polite request
8. Where is the meeting?	Passive voice: Reflexive and participial form Nouns, adjectives, personal pronouns and numerals in the Instrumental An interrogative clause A subordinate (relative) clause	What is the agenda today? Who is the organizer of the seminar? A working lunch is organized for the participants...	Expressing rights and obligations Declaring a position Ready to cooperate
9. How much costs this?	Quantity Fractional numerals Nouns of numerals. Comparison of adjectives adverbs, nouns, verbs and phrases	Buying souvenirs Buying food National goods	Choice, preference Description of parameters Fixing of size, quantity, price
10. Help!	Coordinating and subordinating conjunctions. Conditional clauses Prepositions for a reason and an aim Comparison	Solving health problems: At the hotel In the hospital and in the pharmacy/ Phone call to a doctor Description of an accident Solving other problems I’ve lost..... I’ve been stolen..... Car accident	Expressing a resemblance, Difference and comparison Setting a task Explaining the reason Expressing a condition and an attitude